Lamborghini Showcases the Huracán STO at the Institute of Contemporary Art, Miami

Bold Italian design displayed during Art Basel Miami, embracing functionality and pure performance

Sant'Agata Bolognese/Miami, FL December 1, 2021 - In celebration of the the Opening Reception and annual kick-off to Art Basel Miami, Automobili Lamborghini is honored to partner with W Magazine and the Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA), Miami for an interactive, digital installation surrounding the latest Lamborghini Huracán Super Trofeo Omologato (STO).

Lamborghini has always been at the forefront of design innovation and cutting-edge engineering, delivering breath-taking performance and incredible emotion. Created with racing-inspired design that pays tribute to the Lamborghini motorsport heritage and coupled with extreme aerodynamics for podium-class performance, the Huracán STO is being displayed during Art Basel Miami week in the ICA's most stunning footprint - the Sculpture Garden.

Dedicated to promoting continuous experimentation in contemporary art, advancing new scholarship, and fostering the exchange of art and ideas, the ICA Miami offers the perfect environment in which to showcase this Lamborghini masterpiece.

The Huracán STO will be on display in the ICA Sculpture Garden through December 5, 2021.
