Lamborghini announces departure of Maurizio Leschiutta from the company

Lamborghini CTO Rouven Mohr will assume of Head of Motorsport role on an interim basis

Sant'Agata Bolognese, 19 December 2025 – Automobili Lamborghini today announces that Maurizio Leschiutta will leave his position as Head of Motorsport, a role he has held since January 2025, at the end of the current year.

During his tenure, Maurizio made a significant contribution to the sporting success of Lamborghini Squadra Corse during the 2025 season. Among the highlights, the team celebrated an historic overall victory in the 24 Hours of Spa, achieved together with Grasser Racing Team and Lamborghini factory drivers Mirko Bortolotti, Luca Engstler and Jordan Pepper.

Beyond on-track success, Leschiutta also led the development of the new Lamborghini Temerario GT3 and Temerario Super Trofeo cars. These important projects will see their respective debuts at the 12 Hours of Sebring in the IMSA WeatherTech Sports Car Championship in 2026, and in the European, North American and Asian Super Trofeo championships starting in 2027 respectively.

Lamborghini would like to sincerely thank Maurizio Leschiutta for the commitment, professionalism and dedication shown during his year with Lamborghini Squadra Corse. Lamborghini wishes him all the best for his future professional endeavours.

In the interim period, Lamborghini Chief Technical Officer Rouven Mohr will assume the role of Head of Motorsport until a successor to Leschiutta is announced.
